

SENTENCING SUMMARY FROM RECENT STUDENT AND ANTI CUTS PROTESTS

- by Legal Defence and Monitoring Group <http://ldmg.org.uk/>
Up to date on November 12th 2011 but this will change every week...
So keep checking LONDON ABC website for update
<https://network23.org/londonabc/prisoners/>

Notes:

- This list is the sentencing results of all known [by LDMG] cases of violent disorder plus a few other cases. This list is comprehensive but by no means complete.
- Some 180 people (that we know of) have been arrested since Millbank (excluding the F&M 145...)
- There are at least 25 plus who have not yet pleaded or are currently preparing for trial after pleading not guilty to violent disorder – many trials are taking place before the end of the year but numerous defendants are facing trial early next year.
- There are dozens and dozens of others who have either had their charges dropped, accepted cautions or bind-overs.
- There are many other sentences that were not as harsh as many of these below, though no other violent disorder cases that we know about. These were some of the most serious sentences that we have pulled out so far.
- While this may look depressing at first glance – it is – please remember that it is the people that pleaded guilty that have been the first to go through the court process. And read this recent article by Matt Foot from Birnbergs where he highlights the shocking statistic about muslim Gaza protestors charged with violent disorder - 'More than 60 of them pleaded guilty and went to prison while six of the seven who were tried were acquitted.'

- If anyone thinks that having more background info on any of the above cases might help their case or their appeal then please get in touch with LDMG – you can email them at: ldmgmail@yahoo.co.uk & / or courtsupport@riseup.net
- Don't forget to check out London ABC for list of prisoners who could do with our support <https://network23.org/londonabc/prisoners/>
- Were there is no name or number given this is either because they did not want our help, didn't wish for their name or number to be publicised, or we are still waiting for confirmation to do so. Again keep checking for updates.
